Join us for a free interactive workshop for parents, grandparents, child care providers, and early years service providers. Charlotte will present ideas and songs to help you encourage children to observe and understand nature, weather and seasons.

Charlotte will include favourites, like “Each of us is a Flower”, Octopus (Slippery Fish) and “Listen to the Water” as well as new songs, “The Moose on the Loose” and “Ottie the Otter” from her new CD “Diamonds by the Sea”.

Charlotte Diamond:

Charlotte Diamond is an internationally-recognized, award-winning recording artist, singer, composer, and performer of family and children’s music. She is also known as an educator, and has participated in many provincial, state and national educational conferences as a keynote speaker and workshop leader. Her musical presentations are lively and entertaining with an emphasis on participation. In both Canada and the USA, Charlotte’s music is part of many classroom curriculums, as the songs are easily singable, teachable, and relevant.

In her musical workshops, Charlotte expands on the value of songs in the development of self-esteem, self-expression, vocabulary, coordination, and creativity. Building on favorites like “Octopus” (Slippery Fish) and “I am a Pizza” (Je suis une pizza), she will give ideas on ways to make music a valuable tool in your teaching. Charlotte will also demonstrate how music builds a sense of unity and cooperation within your group
